Sir:

This office has the honor to herewith make application for a certificate of honorable service, of Eugene Delwick, late Private Co. B, 6th Regt Wis. Inf. Vols.

Mr. Delwick is a German, living among Germans who evidently do not know how to proceed to obtain the certificate. When issued we have to request that it be sent to this office for transmittal to Mr. D. and for the purpose of enabling us to complete his record on the books of this office.

Very Respectfully

(Encl 1)

1. Here applicant should state that he is the identical (name of soldier), or state his or her relationship, and that he or she is the legal heir or representative of (name of soldier).

2. Here give a brief statement of service, showing where service was rendered; in what battles, if any, applicant was engaged; what rank he held; whether wounded or not, and, if so, where; whether absent in hospital or not, or on detached service, and if so, where, &c.

3. Here write "died" or "was discharged."

4. This declaration may be omitted in case of soldiers who died in service.

5. If the Discharge is known to have been destroyed, this ence may be ruled out.

. Here state the relationship of the applicant to the soldier, or that he is the soldier himself.

7. Officers or enlisted men of former company or regiment are preferable as identifying witnesses of soldier applicants. If the witnesses are of that class, or were of the military service in any organization, the fact should be stated, with statement of rank, company, and regiment.

All affidavits forwarded must have the certificate of a Clerk of a Court of Record showing that the civil officer before whom the oath was administered was duly authorized to administer oaths.

As it is impossible to give a copy of a Discharge (there being no duplicate retained), a Certificate in lieu of a Discharge is given.
